The Commercial Convention.

The great Commercial Convention, says the Louisville JOURNAL, it to assemble in this city on Tuesday. It is to be the third in the series of Commercial Conventions; whether it will be the last must depend on a circumstance. The two first, it is generally conceded, exhibited much wisdom in council and rendered good services to the country, and it is believed that the third, as it will be greater in numbers than its predecessors, will exert a wider influence and accomplish more important results.

It is truly gratifying to see what movements have been made throughout the whole country to render this Convention all that a Commercial Convention, held at a most important and eventful time, could or should be. Many of the most distinguished men of the country, in each and all of its sections, are among the appointed delegates, and not a few of them, it is known, have declared their determination to perform, according to the best of their powers, the great duties assigned to them.

Partizan politics, so prominent in nearly all of the movements of the day, are not visible in this. The master spirits of both parties will meet on common ground, all anxious to promote the good of the whole people and not only to re-open the old fountains of national prosperity, but to create new ones. The country surely needs now the benefit of all the wisdom and patriotism of her sons, and we trust that it will be freely accorded to her. Differences of opinion and freedom of discussion there will of course be, but nothing of the character of recrimination.

"No North, no South, no East, no West;" there will be all of these, but all co-operating in favor of the peculiar advantage of each and the common advantage of the whole.

It is not for us to suggest the topics that will come up for consideration in this convention. They will be many, and some of them of great moment. They will be treated and disposed of, we doubt not, well and worthily. No member, we presume, will offer a resolution or make a speech not honestly and sincerely intended to subserve what is understood to be the great purpose of the assemblage. The gathering, we trust, will be a nobler and a loftier one than has been exhibited for many years in either of the halls of Congress, nobler and loftier in genuine intellectual power and in purity and truth of purpose. We hope that no disposition will be manifested to ask too much pecuniary aid from the Federal Government. There are certainly objects, for which the Government, even in the present disastrous condition of the national finances, should, for its own interests as well as for public weal, contribute according to the resources that it can command, but our people should realize, that, not to any of the departments of the Government but to their own banded strength, they must chiefly trust for present and future success.

The New York Nation (Radical) insists that Sumner originated the very settlement of the Alabama Claims with England, which was embodied in the Johnson-Clarendon Treaty, and bitterly opposed and denounced by Sumner in the Senate.

Indian hostilities have again broken out in Idaho, and, at the request of the agents there, the Secretary of the Interior has asked that additional troops be sent to them. The free distribution of whiskey among the Indians by white traders, and subsequent cheating at trade, originally caused all the trouble. Similar troubles are reported in Dakota.

REMAINS OF THE LATE EX-PRESIDENT

PIERCE—FUNERAL SERVICES, &c.

CONCORD, Oct. 11.—The remains of ex-President Pierce were removed from his late residence to Doric Hall, in the State House, at 11 o'clock, where they were open to the view of all who desired the opportunity. The procession from the house was composed of members of the bar, citizens and friends and twelve pall bearers, who were members of the bar.

The public schools marched in procession to view the body. Doric Hall was festooned in mourning, and a large floral cross was suspended over the body from the centre of the hall. Rev. Dr. Eames, of this city, Rev. Dr. Edson, of Lowell, and Rev. Dr. Lurben, of Charleston, Mass., led the procession through the yard to the hall. A large concourse of people were waiting for an opportunity to take a last view of the departed. The coffin was covered with black cloth, with rich silver trimming.

Concord, Oct. 11.—In accordance with the request of the mayor, all places of business were closed from 12 to 2 o'clock to-day. The remains of ex-President Pierce were taken to St. Paul's Church at 1 o'clock, where the rites of the Episcopal Church were performed by Rev. Dr. Eames and Dr. Colt, of St. Paul's, several other clergymen being present and joining in the responses. The funeral procession left the church at two o'clock, and deposited the remains in their last resting place.

One of the strongest Radical papers in Texas—one indeed that has openly prided itself upon having been "the first Southern journal to advocate the election of Gen. Grant"—quotes a statement from the New York Nation to the effect that "Grant's administration has not only made bad appointments, but probably some of the worst ever made by a civilized Christian government," and then goes on to say:

Is not the same repeated in Texas? Do we not see men holding office whose presence would disgrace any parlor, and whose names would destroy the credit of any business firm that would receive them as clerks and bookkeepers, not to say partners? Do not men rule and govern us by Federal appointment, either direct or indirect, with whom gentlemen will not associate, and with whom honest men fear to die? This is notorious. This fact has covered the administration in Texas with more odium than loyal men can move, and has made loyal men and Republicans ashamed to own their

What pain and disgust an editor whose pride and glory it was to have been the first to nominate Grant for the Presidency, must have felt in the contemplation of wrongs and outrages before he brought himself to speak thus of the object of his old idolatry.—Courier Journal.

SENATOR WILSON AND THE SOUTH.—A Washington letter to the Baltimore Sun says:

When Senator Wilson was here a few days ago he manifested a spirit of conciliation towards the South which his political opponents scarcely expected of him, and expressed himself as utterly opposed to the policy of proscription which the administration had inaugurated in Texas and Mississippi. His argument was that because a man was for Dent in Mississippi or for Hamilton in Texas he was not necessarily an opponent of either the republican party or the administration of President Grant. He was therefore opposed to the wholesale removal of all Dent and Hamilton men from office in their respective States, but advocated, rather, such a course as would heal all differences and unite the opposing elements of the party. The result of his conference with the President was that the wholesale slaughter of officeholders, in Texas especially, which has just been commenced, was temporarily suspended.

Not long since, in the vicinity of Utica, N. Y., a marriage was solemnized, which, for uniqueness of ceremony is submitted as a sample. As the parties to be married entered the parlor arm in arm, the clergyman met them midway the room, when the groom taking the right hand of the bride he said:

"We have promised to protect each other so long as we live. We intend now to be united and hereafter live together husband and wife, and we have invited you to be present this evening to sanction our union according to the requirements of custom and the laws."

The clergyman said: "By the authority I possess as a clergyman, and in the presence of these witnesses I hereby (laying on his hands) pronounce you husband and wife in fulfillment of your promises."

Prayer followed and the ceremony was ended.

The bread question is attracting much attention in Middle and Northern Georgia. The Macon Telegraph, of the 6th inst., says, "The food prospects in Georgia were never darker, even during the war, than they are now." The Savannah Republican thinks this picture overdrawn.

A Tribute of Gratitude

To the Ladies who placed the Flowers on my Wife's Grave.

In a lonely grave, in a stranger land,
There rests apart from all her kindred line,
She, who on earth had shared my heart and hand,
But she is gone and sorrow now is mine.

No pilgrim sister o'er her lonely grave to weep,
Nor strew the flowers love offers to the dead,
Unknown, save by me, she lies in silent sleep.

To those by whom her memory should be fed,
Even he who loved her, soon must wander far
From the grassy mound that hides her from the day.

To wage with death a sad, but useless war,
For conquered earth will mix at last our clay,
Yet to her grave come Ladies bright with love,
To celebrate the charms that robe that rose.

To the name of her who rests above
In the elysian clime where weary souls repose.
May Heaven bless them—I have but the power
To thank the Ladies who gave such kind-ness birth.

But the still witness of each fragrant flower
Proves that jewel yet hath its friends on earth.
J. W. D.

A negro met a neighbor the other day near Waynesboro, Tenn., and being asked what was the latest news, he exclaimed, "Oh, good news, sah! good news! Mr. Senator's gwine to call de loyal legislator together to take action on de fifteenth commandment."

A wise clergyman, now deceased, once said: "He had learned to preach not only so that people could understand him if they had a mind to, but also so that they could not misunderstand him if they wanted to."

Here is a Lafayette (Ind.) marriage announcement: "Married, on Wednesday last, after a vast amount of trials and tribulations, by Squire Duffield, Colonel Robert M. Foster and Mrs. Sarah Hughes, all of this place."

D. Wyatt Aiken in a letter to the Charleston News estimates the cotton crop of Abbeville County this fall at 6,000 bales; the crop in 1860 was 21,977 bales. In the same letter he says the county is growing small grain in large quantities, and at once, especially barley and oats.

A fearful hurricane swept along the Maine coast Friday night, driving twenty-seven vessels ashore, causing a loss of seventeen lives and a very considerable amount of property. The steamer New York was among the number driven ashore, but the passengers and crew were saved.

The island of St. Thomas was visited by another earthquake on the 17th of September, in severity exceeding all others since the great earthquake of 1867. The city of St. Thomas was shaken to its foundations, materially injuring many of the most substantial buildings.

Hon. Horace Greeley, in a letter to an editor in Arkansas, contends that long continued rebel disfranchisement is impossible. There is, he says, a more excellent way, and the republicans must pioneer it; nothing is safer than magnanimity.

The "magnanimity" of General Sherman in allowing his clerks, without distinction of party, to go home to vote is very extraordinary indeed, in view of the fact that there is not a single Democrat in his department, the last one having been dismissed by Secretary Stanton.—Wash. Express.

A great freshet occurred Friday in Swift river, Oxford County, Maine, occasioning a rise of thirty-six feet, causing general consternation and great damage. Numerous houses and barns were demolished, and many people in the fright, fled with their families to the mountains.

GOOD FOR GRANT.—A Washington telegram says that the President, in conversation with a prominent politician, said he had not given the subject of the appointment of the nine United States circuit judges provided for by act of Congress any attention, yet he would consult the Attorney-General about it, and would appoint only such as were considered fit for the place, irrespective of politics.

General Alcorn, in his letter accepting the nomination for Governor, tendered by the Prescriptives of Mississippi, says:

"I look forward to the reconstruction of the State, by men in sympathy with Congress, as a means for the Mississippi bottom."

Which means, we suppose, that reconstruction, as carried out by the men who claim to represent the policy of Congress, would result in putting "the bottom rail on top," a claim which we freely concede him.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Fall and its Dangers.

Animal as well as vegetable life is powerfully affected by the great atmospheric change that takes place in the Fall. But for the flowers, the foliage and the birds of the field there is no help. The human body comes and dies they must. It is otherwise with man. For him the means of reinvigoration have been provided by skill and science. To reinvigorate his exhausted energies and fortify himself against the disorders generated by the sudden depression of temperature and the unwholesome exhalations of Autumn, let him tone his nervous system, invigorate his digestion and give edge to his appetite with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. He may then face the morbid influences of the season fearlessly. The chilling night dews and heavy morning mists will have no power to make him shiver and burn, to affect his liver, to disorder his stomach or his bowels, to rack his joints with rheumatism, or to render any latent element of disease in his system active and dangerous. To the sufferer from general debility, whether constitutional or arising from other causes, this potent vegetable specific is earnestly recommended. And let it be remembered that physical weakness opens the door to all maladies. Vigor is the chief defence of the human structure against all causes of disease, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be truly pronounced the safest and surest of all invigorants. It is the most genial of all vegetable tonics, and is admirably adapted to the wants and weaknesses of the more delicate sex, as well as to the ailments of men.

gress in North Carolina.

The undersigned proposes to publish in the City of Raleigh, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained, a Weekly Family Journal, adapted to the wants of the people of North Carolina, who are engaged in the cultivation of the soil in all its branches, the improvement of our manufactures, our machinery, our mechanical skill, and all the material interests of the State.

In the conduct of the paper he expects to secure the aid of scientific and practical men to instruct and interest his readers. His object will be to make it eminently practical, and useful to all classes.

It will be printed in good style, on good paper of large size at $2 per year, in advance. The first number will appear about the 1st of November, or as soon thereafter as the patronage will justify. Subscribers will be expected to pay as soon as they receive the first number.

The undersigned solicits the aid of his many friends in the State to obtain subscribers and forward the lists at an early day.

The Hillsboro Recorder's Yafcoyville correspondence says, that on Monday last a lot of 1 acre of land with a brick house on it, and a good well of water, sold at auction for the pitiful sum of $270.

MORE PRISONERS.—Three prisoners were brought to this city from Brunswick county, on Monday night, and lodged in jail, from whence they will be conveyed to the county Workhouse. The names of the parties, the crimes for which they are sentenced and their terms of imprisonment are as follows:

Jack Williams, convicted of larceny, sentenced to ten months in the Workhouse.

Isaac Jones, for obstructing the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad sentenced to three years in the Workhouse, to pay a fine of $100, and to give security for his good behaviour for five years.

Sam. Mickens, convicted of larceny, and sentenced to three years in the Workhouse.

All these prisoners are colored.

The Hillsboro Recorder gives the following account of the finding of some relics of by gone days in that town:

"It happened thus: Capt. Berry, in digging a foundation for the new store he is erecting struck upon a rich soil that led him down into a well constructed cavern where were found old champagne bottles, wine glasses of the finest and most beautiful cut glass, and china ware of the most delicate and variegated tints. Right near the spot once stood the headquarters of the Provisional Government in 1770-75. It is probable they might have dug the cave to hide valuable papers—as during the war the Tories were continually dashing in on them. We can't say who dug the cave, but they might have left one of those champagne bottles loaded with the spirit of '76."

Count Michel Dycedurzyski is playing dreadful havoc in New York. The attempt to address him familiarly by name has cost several well-intentioned but mistaken persons their life.

LATEST NEWS.

Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—A careful comparison based upon partial returns from thirty counties including Philadelphia and Allegheny, show a Democratic gain of nearly 4,000. The remaining counties must average a gain of nearly 200 to elect Packes. Geary's majority in Philadelphia is 2,339.

Gen. Wm. M. Belknap of Iowa has been telegraphed to assume the Secretaryship of War, and on his arrival Gen. Sherman will retire. It is known that Gen. Sherman accepted the position very unwillingly and only to accommodate the administration.

Belknap is a graduate of Princeton College, N. J. He is 38 years old, a lawyer, and served from the beginning to the end of the war.

Ohio.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13.—Hamilton county gives Pendleton 500 majority and elects entire Democratic municipal ticket.

It is probable that Pendleton is defeated by a very small majority, though corrected returns may possibly elect him. The House is Democratic and the Senate Republican. This defeats the State's sanction to the 15th Amendment.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13.—Returns from a third of the State show a loss for Hayes of 5,000; this average carried throughout the State will elect Hayes by 5,000. Many Democratic strongholds are still unheard from.

Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—Senate 18 Reps. to 16 Dems.; House 30 Reps. to 17 Dems., giving the Republicans 22 majority on joint ballot.

All the papers, but the Age, give the State to Geary by from 5,000 to 10,000. The Age claims the State for Packes by 5,000.

Both branches of the Legislature are Republican.

Virginia.

RICHMOND, Oct. 12.—The Court of appeals of Virginia, composed of Judges appointed by Gen. Canby, met to-day, but adjourned to the January term, after spreading on the minutes an order, setting forth that the adjournment is in view of the rapid progress of reconstruction and that in a brief period, judicial and other officers may be elected to fill places now held by authority temporarily conferred by acts of Congress. The order adds:

"Many believe that the ultimate decision of Congress may be heard in the interval between this and the next appointed term of this Court, and it is deemed expedient and proper not to proceed to the transactions of further business at this time. The reasons leading to this conclusion it is not deemed necessary at this time to State. James H. Cunningham, colored, has been appointed Post Master of the city of Manchester."

CHEERING SUCCESS.
LARGE DIVIDEND OF IN-SURANCE.
The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF FORTY PER CENT.
on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.
The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the properly held a surplus beyond the reserve fund.
The company is now only in the eighth month
of its active operation—yet
HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES which is a success really remarkable, and far above of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF ITS SUCCESS.

S. S. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED
PATENT BALTIMORE PALOR SEATERS AND GAS BURNERS, for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best fire-place heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, and in the place of Stoves, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heat the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate, and, in some cases, ECONOMICAL, CLEAN and SAVING IN THE LARGE AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them.
We guarantee them to be equal to any sold for heating and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and large ones, and are expert Stove makers. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Anthracite coal, and our Stoves will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves.
Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the places. Our Cooking Ranges are renowned the best and cheapest in the market—heating of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as a brick oven. We will manufacture S. S. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with one filling.
Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.
